INN:

There will be an inn on sight. It will be taking donations for food. They will be serving a plough-mans lunch (sausage, cheese, pickled things)

We will be training outside, but the sight has restrooms and available space inside for people wanting to get out of the sun.

We will not be breaking for lunch so please bring any amenities you need, food, etc.

Come take part in training the Army! The Calontir War Council will have an entire day of classes, melees and practical application of Calontir Army tactics. Support the Army and learn how the Calontir Army works!
